

INTERLOCUTORY APPEALS

BIOGRAPHIES

The Honorable James G. Carr (Moderator)

Judge James G. Carr assumed senior status on June 1, 2010. Judge Carr was appointed United States District Judge for the Northern District of Ohio on May 9, 1994. He served as Chief Judge of the District from December 2004 until May 2010.

Judge Carr is a 1962 graduate of Kenyon College and a 1966 graduate of Harvard Law School. Following graduation from law school, Judge Carr practiced law in Chicago until 1970. He then joined the faculty of the University of Toledo College of Law, where he taught until 1979. In September 1979, Judge Carr became the first full-time United States Magistrate Judge for the Northern District of Ohio's Western Division.

From 2002 until 2008, he was a member of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court. He is the author of several law-related articles and books, including the two-volume treatise, The Law of Electronic Surveillance, published by Thompson-West.

The Honorable Karen Nelson Moore (Panelist)

Judge Karen Nelson Moore was appointed to the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit on March 24, 1995 by President William J. Clinton, and she took the oath of office on March 29, 1995. She was appointed to fill the vacancy created by the assumption of senior status by United States Circuit Judge Robert B. Krupansky. Prior to her appointment to the court, Judge Moore was on the faculty at Case Western Reserve University Law School where she was named Teacher of the Year by Case Western's Student Bar Association in 1988. And in 1990, she received the Distinguished Teacher Award from Case Western's Law Alumni Association. Judge Moore was a visiting professor at Harvard Law School in 1990-1991. After returning to Case Western from Harvard, Judge Moore was named the Arthur E. Petersilge Professor of Law. Judge Moore is a magna cum laude graduate of Harvard-Radcliffe College and Harvard Law School. She served as law clerk for Judge Malcolm R. Wilkey of the D.C. Circuit and for U.S. Supreme Court Justice Harry A. Blackmun. She currently is a member of the Board of Overseers of Harvard.

The Honorable John M. Rogers (Panelist)

Judge John M. Rogers was sworn in as judge of the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit on November 27, 2002. Prior to his appointment to the bench, Judge Rogers was the Thomas P. Lewis Professor of Law at the University of Kentucky College of Law, where he taught constitutional, administrative, and international law. From 1974-78 and again from 1983-85 he was an appellate attorney in the Civil Division of the U.S. Department of Justice. Judge Rogers has twice been a Fulbright Senior Lecturer in the People's Republic of China—in Beijing in 1987-88 and in Guangzhou in 1994-95. He served 28 years in the U.S. Army Reserve and Kentucky Army National Guard, and retired as a lieutenant colonel.

The Honorable David W. McKeague (Panelist)

Judge McKeague was sworn in as judge of the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit on June 13, 2005. Prior to his appointment to the circuit bench, Judge McKeague had served as United States District Judge for the Western District of Michigan for over 13 years. Before taking the bench, he worked in private practice as an associate and later as a shareholder and director at Foster, Swift, Collins, and Smith from 1971 to 1992. Judge McKeague is an adjunct professor at the Michigan State University College of Law and is a frequent lecturer for other educational programs. He is the co-author of a chapter on Removal Jurisdiction in the third edition of Business and Commercial Litigation in Federal Courts. He currently serves on the Michigan State University College of Law Board of Trustees. He is a member of the Budget Committee of the Judicial Conference of the United States and a consultant to the Federal Judicial Center Program in Dispute Resolution. He previously served as Chairman of the District Judge Education Committee for the Federal Judicial Center. Judge McKeague is a founding master and past president of the American Inns of Court Chapter at Michigan State University College of Law and past president of the Wharton Center Advisory Council. He is a member of the Federal Bar Association, the State Bar of Michigan, the District of Columbia Bar Association, and the Federalist Society for Law and Public Policy Studies.

Pierre Bergeron (Panelist)